INSIGHTS

1)Many students apply for master programmes , seats can be increased for master programmes specially in computer science domain.

2)94% students who applied are from West Bengal , and also the percentage of student selected have the most student from West Bengal only (88.15%)

3)B.TECH computer science is students favourite , also the number of seats for computer science is highest (12) which clearly shown the rise of interest and technology in this domain.